Dear Mr. Slamma:

As requested by representatives of Eldorado Nuclear Limited, Saskatchewan Mining Development Corporation and Uranerzbergbau-GmbH at our meeting on August 3, 1984, I am setting forth in this letter the basis upon which our firm will provide legal services to your company.

You have requested and we have agreed that Arnold & Porter will represent AMOK Ltd. ("AMOK") in anticipated U.S. import relief proceedings with respect to certain uranium products from Canada. As you know, we are also representing Eldorado Nuclear Limited and its subsidiary, Eldorado Resources Limited (together, "Eldorado"), Saskatchewan Mining Development Corporation ("SMDC") and Uranerz Exploration and Mining Ltd. ("Uranerz") in connection with this matter and have fully discussed with you and representatives of Eldorado, SMDC and Uranerz the possibility that the interests of Eldorado, SMDC, Uranerz and AMOK and the results as to each company may differ at various stages of any proceedings. However, you, Eldorado, SMDC and Uranerz have consented to our representation of the four companies. We will exercise our independent professional judgement on behalf of each company, and will maintain the confidentiality of each company's business and financial information.

We would appreciate it if you would send us an initial retainer payment of $2,000. We will credit that payment against the fees which have been and will be incurred for your company's account as we start work on this matter. We will then send you monthly statements for our services, which statements will represent 10% of our fees and disbursements for our services in connection with this matter. Our fees will be based upon our usual time charges for professional, paraprofessional and other direct hours devoted to this matter.

We will also send a statement each month for our out-of-pocket expenses including such items as travel expenditures and living expenses when out of town, taxi fares, long distance telephone calls, duplicating costs and the like.

If the understanding set forth above is accurate and acceptable to you, I would appreciate your signing a copy of this letter and returning it to me. We look forward to working closely with you.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Robert Herzstein
